

Force Protection, Inc. Changing to General Dynamics Land Systems – Force Protection Inc.

Effective May 30, 2012, Force Protection, Inc. changed as follows: General Dynamics Land Systems – Force Protection Inc. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Managing Director of DDTC is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for formal amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Force Protection, Inc. will not require an amendment to reflect the change to General Dynamics Land Systems – Force Protection Inc. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Force Protection, Inc. as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after July 31, 2012, identifying Force Protection, Inc. as a party to the license may be returned without action for correction.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements held by a third-party will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such.

Pending agreement applications identifying Force Protection, Inc will be adjudicated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement, the agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice as explanation for the name change in the executed agreement.